Chapter 1: Introduction

Nathan, a young man who has been living a cloistered life with his home life a mess, is not content with books alone. He longs to escape the reality of his life, but the powers-that-be have other plans for him. They decide that citizens will be able to live in a virtual reality, a world of their own making. Nathan, who is stuck halfway between player and NPC, is able to see mana and direct its flow, but unable to cast any spells of his own. On top of that, the five kingdoms of The Boundless are ready for an all-out war. All they need is a ready supply of immortal warriors...
